

- The NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde Health Literacy Group set up September 2015. Aims to improve staff awareness and to highlight to staff that Health Literacy is everyone's responsibility
- Support patients through all stages of their health journey, ensuring that they have access to information that is patient centred
- Inform staff how to access and promote health information within the NHS Greater Glasgow & Clyde area

Further information from:
www.nhsggc.org.uk/your-health/public-health